IMPORTANT ACADEMIC INFORMATION

1. This Institute follows a grading system for students on a 10 point scale. Students are awarded CPI (Cumulative Performance Index), in lieu of marks, according to his /her performance against the 10 point grading scale.
2. Where, for the purpose of placement, higher education, competitive examination etc., a conversion of CPI to percentage is required, a CPI of 10 may be deemed to be 100% and, accordingly, following table may be used for conversion. This comes into force with effect from 2002 batch (First UG batch covered by Credit Based Systems).

CPI	4.00	5.00	6.00	7.00	8.00	9.00	10.00
Percentage	40	50	60	70	80	90	100

3. Since inception of this Institute in 1977, medium of instruction, examination and all academic activities related to students is English. English is the only language that is used in this institute for all academic issues from admission to award of final Degree.
