- All utensils after washing with soap water should be mopped with a dry, clean cloth for re-use or heated in chambers (if required).
- Necessary arrangements to be made to serve the food warm in the buffet.
- A necessary number of service persons are to be deployed for each buffet.

1.4. The Institute will extend the following facilities and items to the Contractor

- Space for the operation of pre-convocation dinner services.
- Electricity (not for cooking).
- Water for washing purposes.

1.5. A Financial bid is to be submitted as a Financial Bid Form (Annexure-V) by considering the above scope of services and manpower required to manage the contract. The rate should include all taxes. Nothing extra will be paid by the institution for the contract.

Key Deliverables/Operative Terms and Conditions:

- The catering services shall be operated by the awarded firm(s) as decided by the competent authority, failing which the bidder will be blacklisted for the next year and the work shall be awarded to the next eligible bidder. The acceptance letter from the selected bidder shall be sent to the authority within 24 hours of the issue of the award letter. Optimum efforts should be made to satisfy the quality and quantity of approved food items.
- The caterer shall engage and provide a requisite number of well-trained cooks and service personnel.
- Meals should be supplied at all times for all the guests without fail at the designated time.
- The caterer should be financially sound to run.
- The caterer should arrange the required kitchen equipment and buffet sets.
- The caterers shall serve only specified foods as per the contract document and/or sometimes as approved by the competent authorities for special cases.
- The caterer must display the names of food items to be served, in consultation with the competent authority.
- The Caterer has to provide uniforms to their employees during service hours. He has to ensure that his staff are always dressed in clean and tidy uniforms while on duty. The caterer should also issue a Photo Identity Card to its staff.
- The Caterer's employees should be free from any contagious disease, sickness, or any other kind of disease that is considered unacceptable for handling food. In such cases, the Caterer should grant them leave, arrange treatment as deemed fit, and make alternative arrangements at their own cost. Whatever the circumstance, the caterer must ensure that the facility is not hampered and that the serving standard is maintained.
- The Caterer shall be solely responsible for providing safe and hygienic food to the guests. The convocation food committee appointed by the Institute will monitor the same, including hygiene during the preparation of food items. Persons authorized by the Institute must have full access to all facilities and documents. Any preparation found to be unwholesome or unhygienic is liable to be rejected without compensation. Further punitive action, as deemed fit, shall be taken against the caterer, including cancellation of the contract.
- Only packaged drinking water (20-liter jars and dispensers with paper glasses) has to be served.
- The Caterer shall maintain the neatness and cleanliness of the premises at all times. No trash is to be thrown inside the sports complex premises except in properly covered bins supplied by the Institute.
- Burning of any other fuels except cooking gas is forbidden. The use of electricity for cooking is strongly prohibited.
- The assets and non-consumable articles provided by the Institute shall be the property of the Institute, and the caterer shall be merely the custodian of such assets and articles. On termination of the contract, all such property shall be handed over to the Institute in good condition. The Caterer shall maintain the building space in a clean & and hygienic condition.
- In the event of loss/theft/damage of property/utensils/ fittings caused due to negligence of any of its employees of the Caterer, the Institute shall be entitled to get compensation from the Catering Agency. The compensation amount, as decided by the institute, will be final.

2. All the documents as mentioned must be submitted; otherwise, the application will be treated as incomplete.
3. An application without Tender Fee & Earnest Money Deposit (EMD) will not be accepted, and no correspondence shall be entertained thereafter.

Statutory Obligations:

- The staff engaged by the catering agency shall draw their remuneration from their Caterer and shall not claim any employment benefit from the Institute at any time. The agency shall also be responsible for such personnel's statutory obligations and indemnify the Institute in this matter. It is the caterer's duty to explain these terms to his employees.
- The Caterer shall be directly responsible for payment of wages as per the Government rules amended from time to time (including other benefits like E.P.F. & E.S.I. bonus) to his employees engaged for the services. The Minimum Wage Act and Compensation Act should be strictly followed.
- The institute shall have no responsibility towards payment of wages, social security, medical care, safety, or any benefit to the caterer's employees. Any incident occurring during the contract period is the sole responsibility of the caterer, and the institute is not liable for any such incident.
- The Caterer shall not employ any minor for the above contract work as prohibited under the Labour Act and shall comply with all the clauses of the Act.
- All safety measures must be taken to avoid any accident, fire, and other safety hazards. Any type of loss/damage of assets due to any such incident is the sole responsibility of the Caterer. The Institute shall in no way be liable for any such incident occurring during the contract period or in connection with the services.
- If there is damage to the building or other institute property because of the willful or negligent act or poor maintenance, the institute will repair it at its own cost. It shall recover the amount from the caterer.
- The staff employed by the agency will not join or form any union associated with the Institute or otherwise any political party.
- If the rates of two or more bidders are found to be the same, preference will be given to the firm having better credentials. Decisions taken by NIT Silchar shall be final and binding.
- The quality of meals served shall be checked by the Food Committee.
- Penalty Clause: In case of violation of any of the clauses as specified in this notice or in case of damage caused to the Institute property by any act of the successful bidder to whom the award of work has been made, necessary recovery as deemed fit by NIT Silchar shall be made from the bill amount. In severe cases, the work order of the successful bidder may be canceled, and the firm may be blacklisted.

The scope of work detailed above, including key deliverables, is broad, and the institute would appreciate innovative proposals concerning the services sought for. The prospective firms are required to submit their proposals preferably upon performing a detailed site survey.

Decisions taken by the authority of NIT Silchar shall, in all cases, be final and binding upon the bidder.
